DENVER PUBLIC SAFETY LUNCHEON

Thursday, October 25, 11:30 – 1:30

The Curtis Hotel Ballroom, 1405 Curtis Street

Sponsor tables/$2,000* — $175/person — $100 under 35

For a table of 9. The 10th seat at the table will be filled with an elected official or a police officer/firefighter/sheriff/paramedic*

The 8th Annual Denver Public Safety Luncheon will be held in conjunction with six Denver charities that focus on public safety with the net proceeds being split evenly among them. The goal is to inform the business community and other interested parties on public safety in Denver. The heads of the public safety agencies for the City of Denver each will give a brief talk on something "NEW" that people may not know about public safety. Attendees may submit questions in advance to info@denverfirefoundation.org for discussion. This event is open to the press.

Dan O'Hayre will receive the
JERRY KENNEDY DENVER PUBLIC SAFETY LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

David McReynolds will receive the
DAVID J. COLE DENVER PUBLIC SAFETY CITIZENS AWARD
